

Privacy Policy

This Policy explains what the Budget Host Inn & Suites does to keep information about you private and secure. We want you to know how we manage that information to serve you and that you have choices about how it is shared. Please read this Policy carefully. Your payment and personal information is always safe. Our Check-Inn software is the industry standard and among the best software available today for secure commerce transactions. It encrypts all of your personal information, including credit card number, name, and address, so that it cannot be read over the internet.

Q. What information do you have about me?

A. To secure your hotel reservation, we need you to provide us with the following information about yourself:

- Name, street address, contact information.
- Credit card number, expiration date, and verification code.

Q. How do you safeguard information about me?

A. We take a number of steps to protect the privacy of information about you. Here are some examples:

- We authorize our employees and agents to get information about you only when they need it to secure a reservation.
- Your information is not shared with any third parties, for mailing list purposes or any other.

Q. Is information about me shared with service providers outside your company?

A. Only as permitted by law. One example is in the event of a credit card dispute, we would need to provide your information to the bank.

Q. How do you tell me about your Policy?

A. Our Policy is available at www.budgethostcameron.com. This Policy applies to current and former guests of the Budget Host Inn & Suites. The privacy policies posted on our website apply when you use our site. This policy is effective as of February 14, 2007.